RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
By Rev. Nixdorf in the Lutheran church morning and evening.
By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening.
By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening.
By Rev. Sembover in the Baptist church in the evening.
By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning.

If you desire any of the Weekly Literary papers, or Monthly Magazines, call at the Postoffice, where they are kept regularly for sale.

JUDGED IN JAIL.—An old gentleman, by the name Merrell, somewhat deranged, was lodged in jail several days since, for safe-keeping. He is to be removed to the Asylum, at Harrisburg, in a short time.

SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS.—Special examinations of Teachers will take place as follows: At Curwensville, October 26th; at Lawrence, on November 2d and 9th, at the school house, one-fourth mile south of Clearfield. GEO. W. SNYDER, Co. Superintendent.

CENTER COUNTY.—On Tuesday, October 23d, one of the masons engaged on the new jail in Bellefonte, from some cause fell from the top of the wall to the bottom, a height of 25 feet, on a lot of rough stones—breaking one of his legs, four or five ribs, and otherwise injuring himself.

JUST HOW TO DO IT.—An exchange says: If you wish to keep your town from thriving turn a cold shoulder to every young mechanic or beginner in business—kill him off if you can. Look up to every new comer with a scowl and discourage all you can; if that won't do decay his work; and go abroad for wares of his kind rather than give him your money. Last, but not least, refuse to patronize your village paper. "Then go to seed." There is no more effectual way to retard the growth of a town than this.

GOODY FOR NOVEMBER.—This number contains a magnificent steel plate, entitled "The Woful Heart," the usual handsome colored fashion-plate; "Sports in Childhood;" and many other useful and ornamental illustrations. Now is the time to commence making up your clubs. Price, one copy, one year, $3; 2 copies, $5; 3 copies, $7.50; 4 copies, $10. For full particulars for larger clubs, enclose 25 cents and get a sample copy containing terms. Address L. A. GODEY, N. E. corner Sixth and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

"LOOK OUT FOR HIM."—Our neighbor, Goodlander, in his issue of last week, made an unjustifiable and uncalled-for attack upon an agent of the Penna Bible Society, at present in this county. Mr. Hull is a highly respectable and estimable Christian gentleman, worthy of public confidence, who recently canvassed Jefferson, Clarion and Venango counties, where he was courteously received and treated in a gentlemanly manner, and is now engaged in supplying the destitute families in this county with the Bible. Notwithstanding the epithets and aspersions heaped upon him by the editor of the Republican, we hope that the Christian people of Clearfield county will receive Mr. Hull with all due courtesy and kindness, and aid him in distributing the Word of God—the Bible—among those who are without that precious book.

HARDWARE STORE.—One of the most extensive Hardware establishments in Central Pennsylvania is located at Philipsburg, Centre county. Persons in want of Stoves, Railing Materials, Bar Iron, Nails, Table Cutlery, Locks, Hinges, etc., would do well to call at the Hardware Store of G. H. Zeigler & Co., before making their purchases elsewhere. The Messrs. Zeigler are accommodating and gentlemanly salesmen, and will do their utmost to cater to the wants of customers. Persons desirous of purchasing hardware of any description, should, by all means, call at Zeigler's, in Philipsburg, who are prepared to sell them all articles in their line at the lowest cash prices. They also keep for sale the celebrated Spear's cook and parlor stoves, which they will furnish to customers below Phil'a retail prices. Give them a call when you go to Philipsburg.

The Harrisburg Telegraph vouches for the truth of the following: A boy aged eight years, son of Benjamin Whisler, residing in Millin township, a short distance from Newville, in Cumberland county, has been seriously afflicted for some time past on account of having a living snake in his stomach. The presence of the young reptile was discovered about two years ago, and by a rapid growth it has attained a size that renders it very painful to the boy. Thirteen physicians assembled at the family residence last week, and held a consultation, when it was decided that the only manner in which the snake could be removed was by cutting open the stomach of the sufferer. The boy has not eaten any food except sweetmeats and new milk for more than a year past, and has a horror of everything else in the shape of nourishment.

John B. Beck, Copperhead candidate for the State Senate, in the Lycoming district, beats Wingard, Republican, 307 majority.

A STRANGE OCCURRENCE.—A correspondent, of Cameron, West Virginia, sends the following to the Waynesburg, Pa., Republican: "A very singular occurrence took place in our neighborhood (the western part of Alleppo township) one night last summer, some notice of which may be interesting to your readers. Some time in the night referred to, a terribly loud explosion was heard by Mr. Griffith, Sr., living on the road leading from the place of elections for Alleppo township, to Cameron. Mr. Griffith describes the report as equaling in violence that of the heaviest artillery, being sufficient to shake his house very sensibly. Soon after this noise was heard, a large stump with an immense mass of stone and earth attached, was found sitting on top of the grass, in a field of Mr. Long, near by and in full view of the public road. About thirty yards below the stump there was a hole about ten feet in diameter, corresponding in shape with the mass which had been displaced. The hole was filled with water to within two feet of the top. The stump had been thrown up the hill this considerable distance, together with a log about fifteen feet long which was lying across the roots. The stump and hole in the ground are still to be seen by any one passing the road. What was the nature of the mighty force that could have produced such an effect is an interesting subject of inquiry."

An entirely new plan of reconstruction is proposed by one of those patriotic and amiable gentlemen who represent the rebel element, in the Richmond press. Dissatisfied with the law as it is, and apparently with no confidence in any of the theories of reconstruction, he thinks nothing would so effectually promote that object as the hanging of about twenty Radicals. This is the way people have talked before, when they had hardly escaped the operation themselves. But will the gentleman be satisfied with about twenty hanging Radicals? If so, the passion is more easily assuaged than we supposed it could be. Hang us up, then, some twenty Radicals—let them be men who have done most to maintain the Union—and then our amiable rebel friends will consent to be reconciled.

Many of the Southern cities have suffered as much, or more, since the war, as during it. Of Galveston especially may this be said. She has been visited by an almost devastating pestilence. Out of an estimated population of twenty-five thousand souls over one thousand have been translated. One out of every twenty-five, and from all classes of society, for Yellow Jack is no respecter of persons. And to this grievous affliction has been added a flood second only in destructiveness to the original deluge, and following so close on the horrors of the war that Galveston must be indeed a scene of desolation and woe.

It is represented that the liberated Russian serfs all over the Kingdom are making good use of their liberty, and rapidly rising in the scale of human existence. The masters, though at first dissatisfied with the Imperial Ukase, are becoming convinced of its justice and wisdom, and master and slave now live to gather upon harmonious terms, as freemen.

The Louisville Democrat pronounces Gen. Cary a sham all around; sham Workingman, sham Radical, sham Congressman, elected by shams. He will "defeat and denounce" Democracy. "His election is no triumph of ours, nor really of any one else but Gen. Sam. Cary."

Negro suffrage was presented prematurely to the Ohio people. Thirty-eight counties that gave Hays a majority of 6,394, gave at the same time a majority of 16,744 against the Amendment, so that in those counties the Amendment can 23,139 votes behind Hays.

MARRIED:
On October 22d, 1867, at the house of John J. Beams, in Brady tp., by Rev. Edwin Hull, of Brookville, Mr. JOHN MUNN, of Elk county, and Miss CAROLINE BEAMS, of Clearfield county.

On October 13th, 1867, by S. P. Wilson, Esq., Mr. GEORGE LINGLE and Miss ELLEN KYLER, both of Goshen tp.

DIED:
On October 16th, 1867, at the residence of her father, John Mahaffey, Esq., in Burnside township, Clearfield county, Miss NANNIE J. MAHAFFEY, aged 24 years, 3 months and 5 days.

She lived a Christian, and died in blissful hope of eternal life in heaven. Earth has lost a jewel, but angels have found it and taken it home.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

One of the greatest and most useful discoveries in medical science was made by the celebrated Dr. J. Dumas, of Paris, Chief Physician to the Imperial Infirmary of France, in 1861. Those who have been afflicted with the painful disease known as the Piles, and especially cured by the use of Dr. Dumas' Pile Salve, cannot speak too highly of the benefits conferred upon them by the use of this certain remedy. It has never been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in a single case. In this respect it surpasses all other medicines of the kind. It will do just what it is recommended for; if not, the money will be refunded. One or two boxes is sufficient to effect a permanent cure in four or six days, if the directions on the box are followed. Price one and two dollars per box, according to size. Sent by Mail or Express to any part of the United States or Canada. Sold by Druggists generally. A liberal discount made to the trade. Address, D. S. DUNHAM & CO., Williamsport, Pa., Proprietors and Manufacturers for the United States and Canada.

$500.00 REWARD will be paid in greenbacks to any person who has used Dr. Dumas' Pile Salve according to the directions and has not been cured. Address, D. S. DUNHAM & CO., Williamsport, Pa., Dec. 5th, 1866-1y.
